Fall Tour of Historic Homes
Saturday, September 13, 2014
10am – 4pm
Sparta, Georgia

Sparta possesses an exceptionally high number of significant historic structures, representing over two-hundred years of Georgia’s history. Very few cities and towns have retained as many historic buildings as Sparta and Hancock County.

Our Fall Tour will showcase this diverse architectural heritage. Visit homes from Federal and Greek Revival time periods.

This year, the home and gardens of the Harley-Rives-Currey House, will also be featured.

Tour Headquarters is the Old Sparta Jail, a square granite structure built in 1905, located one block south of the County Court House. Homes will be open from 10 am to 4 pm. Admission tickets are $15.00, and can be purchased at the Old Jail on the day of the tour.

For more information, contact Rick Joslyn, President, Sparta/Hancock County Historical Society, 706-444-7412.